BLUE AND GRAY.

The Scarred Veterans of the North and the South

WELCOME THE PRESIDENT

At Evansville, Indiana-The Reconcillation of the two Sections Dwelt Upon by the Chief Executive of the Nation - Attorney General Griggs Stirs up Patriotism of the Audience.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 11.-President McKinley and his cabinet came from Chicago this morning to attend the national reunion of the blue and the gray. A heavy rain was falling, but despite this 10,000 veterans and visiters thronged about the railroad sta-tion, and the veterans in gray vied with the veterans in blue in tendering tremendous ovation when the presidential party arrived. They swarmed around the President and the cabinet officers, cheering and extending their hands for a grasp of welcome. At the same time a presidential salute of 21 guns boomed from Camp Farragut, at the Tri-State fair grounds. This was the signal for whistles and bells throughout the city to join in.

Owing to the short stay of the Presthe Cleveland Grays and reception committee to the fair grounds, where President McKinley delivered an ad-

Mayor Aken presided, and introduced C. A. De Bruler, of Evansville, welcomed the distinguished guests and veterans to the city. Governor A. J. Mount followed with a welcome on behalf of the state, and introduced President McKinley, who said:

President's Address

"My Fellow Citizens;-It gives me 'My Fellow Citisens. It gives invery great pleasure to participate with you, men of the north and men of the south, in this glad reunion of hearts. We are already unified; the peace which Grant and Lee made at Appomattor has been kept, not by law nor restraint, but by love and fraternal regard. The Union to-day rests not on force, which may fail, but rests in the hearts of the people, a Union that can never be sev-"If I have been permitted in slightest degree to help in the work of work of reconciliation and unification, J will esteem it the greatest honor of my life. When I made the call for troops prosecute the Spanish war, men from the north and the south, without regard to political belief or religious creed ral-fied to the standard of the Union. The best men of the south came; the sons of old Confederate soldiers. men of the north came; the sons of the old members of the Grand Army of the Republic. All came together in heart and hand to follow the flog of their ountry, wherever it might lead, have been reconciled; more than rec-onciled, for our reconciliation has been baptized in the best blood of both sections of our beloved country.

"If a northern soldier put the flag up at Santiago, a southern soldier, the gallant Brumby, of Georgia, put it up over Manila. It rests with us to look to the future, putting the past behind And this government relies upon the patriotism of the country, north and south, to stand by the purposes of the government, and follow in the pathway

"I am glad to meet and greet you; we one together not as we came a third of a century ago, with arms in our hands, but we come with love for each other in our hearts."

Attorney General's Speech

At the conclusion of his speech President McKinley announced that the members of his cabinet were present, and several would make short ad-

Attorney General Griggs spoke in part "We appreciate this as follows: "We appreciate this welappropriate to-day that we turn back to review the gallant deeds of those who on land and sea have upheld the cause that was nearest their hearta It was the inevitable decree of Provi-dence that this land should exist as one, and not become a divided country. The valor that inspired the men of the north and of the south is a com-mon heritage of pride to all the land. People sometimes deplore war, and speak of peace conferences as if they could blot out of the soul of man all love of gallantry-all admiration for herole deeds.

"You may declare and resolve to the end of the world, my friends, but long est and last in the admiration of the human soul will live deeds of herolam and gallantry done in noble causes for the benefit of the world, noble causes and mankind and God. And so it is fitting that those who followed the cause that they believed in according to their hearts' devotion and their minds' direction should be accorded the glory that is justly theirs,

"And may no time ever come when

Great. In the first heat Peter the Great and Tommy Britton showed the greatest speed ever seen in a public race when they trotted head and head the half mile in 1:01%, with the second quarter in 3%. By many it was considered bad driving that very possibly lost the race for the two heavy favorites. They kept together to the last eighth, when Britton drew away, and won by a length, all out, with Peter the Great also greatly distressed. Britton was done for, and Bonatella, who had finished third and fourth in the first two heats, took the race rather easily.

The funeral will occur-to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from his late residence. Interment will be at Riverview cemetery.

The mock trial to be given by the attorneys of this city for the benefit of the fire department at the Star theatre Saturday night, promises to be very funny, and in fact more so than the old time "box of monkeys." Each attorney is hard at work on his part of the case and will endeavor to outdo the other-fellow. Reserved seats will go on sale at 12 o'clock to-day and the admission to any part of the downstairs will be twenty-five cents. Scats on sale at Raiston's drug store.

Government bonds strong.

State and railroad bonds weak.

The stock market fell flat again to day. The duliness was made evident that yesterday's upward spurt was due almost entirely to covering by shorts, when our honor is imperiled or at stake that any man shall sit down to count the cost of its defense or stop to think whether he incurs risk or danger. Where the honor of the nation, the giory of the flag and its supremacy are in question no howest patriot, nothing but a coward, would stop to ask what it would cost to save it."

The presidential party was escorted back to the train, followed by a long line of veterans, marching in army order, the Blue and Gray shoulder to shoulder.

One World's Record Broken.

ment order, the amount of interest to be paid out this week is only about $1,600,000, and that not until Priday. O' course only part of it is payable in New course only part of it is payable in New York, and precedent shows that a small part of the holders are likely to present their claims on that day. The next disbursement comes on October 23. The requirement for the presentation of registered bonds for indorsement before payment is made is also expected to operate sgainst a general acceptance of the interest. The action of the treasury department nevertheless, has had the effect of allaying apprehension in Wall street. But it is perceived that whatever relief is afforded is not likely to furnish a supply of surplus funds for the benefit of stock speculators.

Business in bonds was very well distributed and the tendency of prices was downward. Total sales par value, $2,055,000.
